

The Challenge

Researching dumpster vendors for every new job on a national basis took a significant amount of time, which led Imperial Roof Systems to turn to a partner who could manage all their rental needs effectively, reliably and on-demand.

The Solution

Imperial Roof Systems started renting roofing dumpsters from Dumpsters.com in 2019 and has benefited from specific aspects of their service including:

Quick and effective service for on-demand orders

One point of contact for all their rentals nationwide

Reliable dumpster inventory and availability in 50 states

The Results

Since partnering with Dumpsters.com, Imperial Roof Systems has streamlined their rental process and prevented production delays because of their on-time dumpster deliveries.

Efficiency: 30-40% Less
Time Spent Coordinating Dumpsters

Coverage: 40+
Service Areas Across the U.S.

Volume: 500+
Dumpsters Rented Annually

The Experience

“Dumpsters.com is efficient in both time and customer service. It’s that assurance factor. I don’t have to search elsewhere. I can go to my other tasks because I know that Adam Toporowski [our account manager] is working on it. It’s been a great transition for me.”
